International Perspectives on English Teacher Development Andrew Goodwyn,Jacqueline Manuel,Rachel Roberts,Lisa Scherff,Wayne Sawyer,Cal Durrant,Don Zancanella,2022-11-30 The fourth volume in the successful IFTE series provides an international perspective on the knowledge and professional development of the English teaching workforce It provides a state of the art review of English teaching and teachers and how they are developed over time With contributions from leading scholars around the world this volume is divided into four sections that follow the journey of an English teacher from being a student to the latter stages of professional development and becoming a teacher It sheds light on how different elements such as school culture professional development higher level qualifications professional associations and government policies contribute or detract from retention and job satisfaction International Perspectives on English Teacher Development serves as ideal reading for the research and teacher education community along with teachers and student teachers globally Library Journal ,2001

Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano,2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials Public Libraries ,1996

Life and Learning Between Hong Kong and Toronto Chun-Kwok Lau,2021-08-24 This book presents a narrative inquiry into the cross cultural educational experiences of a family living in Hong Kong and Toronto Canada At heart a go and return story Lau reflects on the difficulties of adjusting to the different practices of teaching and learning in two places with their own distinctive cultures Ever more prescient now amid the current social and political upheavals in Hong Kong and around the world the book considers the profound impacts such transitions have on families By delving into the challenges of living working and learning across cultures he reflects upon the
