practice essential to holistic nursing Group Therapy for Complex Trauma Judith A. Margolin, 2025-09-30 Group Therapy for Complex Trauma provides a roadmap for professionals trying to address the many issues that arise in group treatment. It is an excellent training resource for mental health professionals working in institutions that provide higher levels of acute care including inpatient partial hospitalization and/or intensive outpatient programs as well as those running groups in traditional outpatient settings. Chapters pull the most recent theory and practice into one concise resource addressing not only how to treat complex trauma but also why doing so matters. They also provide guidance for troubleshooting situations that often arise around when conducting groups with a population that is often highly dysregulated. The second section includes exercises and handouts that can be reproduced and shared with participants enabling them to follow along during the group session and to complete exercises and review material in their own time.

Handbook of Photomedicine Michael R. Hamblin, Ying-Ying Huang, 2013-10-22 Providing the most comprehensive up-to-date coverage of this exciting biomedical field, Handbook of Photomedicine gathers together a large team of international experts to give you a complete account of the application of light in healthcare and medical science. The book progresses logically from the history and fundamentals of photomedicine to diverse therapeutic applications of light known collectively as phototherapies. It facilitates your understanding of human diseases caused by light, the rationale for photoprotection and major applications of phototherapy in clinical practice. The handbook begins with a series of historical vignettes of pioneers from the last two centuries. It also presents the fundamentals of physics and biology as applied to photomedicine. It next examines conditions and diseases caused by light including skin cancer, dermatoses, and immunosuppression. The remainder of the book focuses on the most important clinical therapeutic applications of different kinds of light that vary in both wavelength and intensity. The book discusses ultraviolet phototherapy for skin diseases and infections and presents the basic science of photodynamic therapy and its use in cancer therapy and other medical specialties. It then covers mechanistic studies and clinical applications of low-level laser light therapy as well as the use of high-power or surgical laser therapy in specialties such as dentistry and dermatology. The book concludes with a collection of miscellaneous types of phototherapy.

Diagnosing the Psychological Consequences of Trauma Jan Gysi, 2025-09-22 Tremendous progress has been made in the diagnosis and treatment of the consequences of trauma over the past two decades, which have led to significant changes being introduced in the ICD-11 and the DSM-5. Navigating this wealth of new knowledge in psychotraumatology as well as keeping track of the various posttraumatic symptoms and disorders that can present in clients can be challenging. The brilliantly structured full-color navigation charts in this volume help both early-career and experienced professionals to keep track of the variety of diagnostic options to be considered or excluded while not overlooking anything. After an introduction to the trauma dissociation axis model, the five axes are then presented in detail, including case examples, differential diagnoses, recommendations, decision paths, and questionnaires. Axis I: Personality disorders including borderline. Axis II: Disorders specifically associated with stress including PTSD CPTSD and prolonged grief disorder Axis III Structural dissociation of the personality dissociative and partial dissociative identity disorder Axis IV Other dissociative disorders dissociative neurological symptom disorder depersonalization derealization disorder dissociative amnesia Axis V Comorbid disorders The last two chapters provide an overview of the special diagnostic aspects of reporting to law enforcement agencies and a catalog of questions collated by the author to help guide diagnosis and inform treatment This volume is an exceptional resource for psychiatrists clinical psychologists psychotherapists and other mental health professionals who work with traumatized individuals
